Mike Zehner joined the Zehner Davenport Team after spending two summers under an internship program while attending college at University of San Diego.

Mike's interest in real estate began early, having been surrounded by it all of his life. He brings a healthy, mature balance to the team, promoting team cooperation, communication, and the integration of technology into the marketing for the team.

Now in his 11th year with the team, Mike has taken on a more direct role in the marketing of specific assignments in the North Orange County Market. He is responsible for building team business with tenants and buyers as well working on several ongoing business park leasing assignments.

Mike is a diligent hard worker who methodically approaches each transaction with the same focus and intensity.
