CAREER SUMMARY

Stan Kwak has 27 years of combined business and brokerage experience. His unique background allows him to better serve businesses as a result of his ability to understand both sides of the real estate business. Stan Kwak has built a reputation for his integrity, knowledge and dedication to his clients. As a result, he is becoming the real estate advisor of choice for many of the large corporations. Working with Stan assures a comfortable transaction where he will help minimize the risk through effective communication and knowledge while ensuring the client's utmost trust and confidentiality.

In his role as an entrepreneur, Stan was able to apply his academic background as a graduate of USC in Business Finance to oversee all aspects of business operations. He has hands-on experience in site selection, purchasing, financial analysis, human resources and overall management, giving him a unique perspective in assisting other businesses with their strategic real estate decisions.

Stan's proven analytical and problem-solving skills, coupled with his strong work ethic, attention to detail and service-first approach, make him a standout amongst his real estate peers. Stan enjoys a high level of referral business from satisfied clients validating his skill set and high level of customer service.

Backed by the strength, reputation and resources of Voit Real Estate Services, he is rapidly rising within the industry as a premier commercial real estate services provider. Stan is licensed as a California Real Estate Broker.
