CAREER SUMMARY

Matt joined Voit Real Estate Services in 2020 after beginning his commercial real estate career at WindWater Real Estate. His primary focus is industrial sales, leasing and investments in the Los Angeles and Orange County markets. He combines his comprehensive market knowledge and thorough understanding of the sales and leasing process with his background in finance to deliver superior results to his clients. Known also for his service-first approach and strong work ethic, Matt's clients depend on him to help them make the most informed decisions possible. Family, friends and colleagues would describe Matt as a competitive, hard worker who is always striving to be the best he can be. His competitive career in water polo has translated over into being a tremendous asset in his professional life. Honesty, integrity, ethics and moral are the most quality traits Matt prides himself of.

Matt first began his professional career in the accounting industry, specifically the tax sector. Matt's years in the industry has provided him a great amount of knowledge in the finance field, which has translated over to be a tremendous trait when analyzing businesses and properties. These analytics, combined with a quick turnaround time, has made colleagues often refer to him as a "math wiz."

Matt is partnered on a team with Dan Berkenfield and Rachel Burney, who collectively hold over 30 years of experience in the industry. Supported by the best-in-class resources at Voit, they work diligently to provide the highest level of professional services available in the industry.
