CAREER SUMMARY

Nick Blanda is an Associate with Voit Real Estate Services, Ontario and specializes in industrial land and building sales/leasing throughout the Inland Empire. He understands the appetite, needs, and preferences of the developers, users and investors of industrial real estate which gives him a multi-faceted perspective of the industrial market as a whole.

He is in the Inland Empire industrial market on a daily basis, constantly communicating with owners and users of industrial land and buildings in-person and over the phone. What sets Nick apart is his aptitude for numbers, data, and technology combined with his tireless work ethic. Nick values relationships and genuinely cares about the clients he works with. No stone will go unturned in his efforts to help his clients achieve their goals.

EDUCATION

Nick graduated from California State University, Fullerton with a Bachelors in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance and Real Estate.
